

MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

Date. 13/01/2026

Dear Andreas Franz Dirk,

We hope this message finds you well. Unfortunately, Jennifer Aniston's private jet has encountered a technical issue, rendering it unavailable for travel. As Ms. Aniston is unable to utilise commercial flight services, we are required to expedite repairs.

The total repair cost amounts to €35,000, to be split 50/50 as per our prior agreement. Your share, as her husband, is €17,500. We kindly request prompt settlement of this amount, following which we shall proceed with the outstanding balance.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,
